

EU Referendum

Customs Information Paper 42 (2016)
Who should read:	Businesses moving goods in and out of the UK from the EU
What is it about:	Information as a result of the EU Referendum
When effective:	24 June 2016
Extant until/ Expires	24 June 2016

1. Background.

The result of the EU Referendum has been confirmed as a vote to leave the European Union (EU).

2. Information for Businesses

As the Prime Minister announced this morning, there will be no immediate change to the movement of goods and people in and out of the United Kingdom (UK) from the EU.

We are still a member of the EU. Until Article 50 is invoked, we will continue to engage with EU business as normal and be engaged in EU decision-making in the usual way. Once it is invoked, we will remain bound by EU law until the terms of our exit have been determined but we will not be involved in decision-making. The period between invocation of Article 50 and our eventual exit from the EU is expected to last at least two years.

3. Contacts.
